

The Courier

VOL. 2, NO. 181, EIGHT PAGES.

CONNELLVILLE, PA, SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 11, 1904

PRICE, ONE CENT.

BASE BALL TRAGEDY.

Sad Ending of a Match Game at Dunbar Friday Afternoon.

RAPP STRUCK DOWN AT BAT.

Pitched Ball Hit Him Over the Head and After Returning to the Pitcher He Sank Down to the Ground and Expired.

Dunbar, June 11.—(Special)—This entire community is plunged in sorrow over the tragic ending of a match game of ball here yesterday afternoon when William A. H. Rapp was struck over the head by a pitched ball and died almost instantly.

To add to the sorrow of the event in the crowd that saw him fall was his sweetheart to whom he was to be married within a few days. It was the closing of the romance of the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Duncan. The stricken young man was taken to her home in a carriage and shortly after the death of her fiancé followed to the Dunbar home where services will be held this afternoon before 10 o'clock. The body will be taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rapp at Lebanon.

Mr. Rapp had been employed here for the last three years. It is said that it was the intention of Mr. Rapp and Miss Duncan to be married within a few days. They were to go to Lebanon where the young man was to enter business with his father, William Rapp, a prominent man of Lebanon.

It was in the closing half of the seventh inning of the game, played between the newly organized team of the Royal Arcanum and the regular team of Dunbar. The score stood 20 to 1 in favor of the regulars and Rapp was the first man to bat for the Royal Arcanum. He took his place in the batter's box but did not strike at the first ball. He was an inshore and went under his arm striking him over the head and falling in front of him. He started for first base picking up the ball and throwing it to the pitcher. He was carrying his bat and someone called for him to throw it back, no one thinking that he had been injured. He was about one-third of the way to first base when he fell. He tried to get up but went down again and expired without uttering a word. Dr. Brown Collier was called but life was extinct when he arrived.

He died surrounded by the players of the opposing teams all of whom were his friends and the spectators who crowded up around him. When it was solemnly announced that the player was dead there was a scene of great sorrow among those watching at the grim ending of the afternoon's pleasure.

Robert Arlis was the pitcher for the regular team and William Stroud was the catcher. Arlis was greatly affected by the terrible accident and was so overcome at the death of his friend that he had to be taken home in a carriage. Nothing happened in Dunbar has caused the widespread excitement and sorrow of this peculiar tragedy. Last evening and today it has been the sole topic of conversation among the people of this community.

The deceased boarded with Joseph Evans just above the Dunbar furnace. He was employed as yardmaster of the N. H. & D. railroad and was a shipping clerk at the furnace. He was an exemplary young man and in the three years of his life here had made many warm friends.

A letter of the dead man arrived in Dunbar this morning. After services at 2:30 this afternoon at the home of Justice Duncan the body will be taken on the Pennsylvania train to Lebanon. The Royal Arcanum will attend the funeral in a body and several friends will probably accompany the body to Lebanon.

GIANTS WERE CUT DOWN.

Pittsburg Team Defeated the Local Colored Ball Players.

The Cuban Giants met the Pittsburg Steel Giants at Marietta & Stillwagon park Friday afternoon, and the men of iron from the Smoky City proved too much for the local giants. The Pittsburgers worked as if they were at an election and the final summing up showed that they had amassed a total of 10 rallies while the Connellville players could only find two scores to their credit. Some of the locals claim that the game was permitted to escape their clutches by numerous balloon ascensions that took place in right and left field. The battery for Connellville consisted of Bird and Tompkins and the game lasted nine innings and consumed 60 minutes with a good sized crowd present.

Dennie Johnson and Bird made the scores for Connellville, the former getting four hits from the Pittsburg twinner. On Tuesday the Giants go to Seneca to meet a colored team from the Pipe Mill. Moses Bridges, the Giant's manager, wants games with any teams.

Epworth League Meeting.
The regular monthly business meeting of the Epworth League Chapter of the Methodist Episcopal Church was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Horner of West Apple street. Refreshments were served at the close of the business meeting.

KNOX IS APPOINTED.

Governor Names Him As Senator to Serve Quay's Unexpired Term.

Harrisburg, June 11.—(Special)—An announcement of the appointment by Governor Pennypacker of P. C. Knox of Pittsburg attorney general of the United States to succeed M. S. Quay, was made at the executive department. The announcement of Mr. Knox's appointment was followed by a long statement from the governor giving his reasons for not calling an extra session of the legislature for the selection of a senator for the unexpired term of Senator Quay, which expires on March 4. The official papers were brought to Harrisburg by Private Secretary Wharton from Philadelphia who was summoned there by the governor. When the governor returns to Harrisburg it is expected he will issue a commission to Mr. Knox.

Philadelphia, June 11.—(Special)—Mr. Knox was interviewed by the Associated Press. Mr. Knox said that he will accept the appointment and carry out the official policy as set down by him. "I cannot conceive how my duties as attorney general will affect the position of the committee. I have no fear that the action of the Senate of the Republican party of Pennsylvania in voting to present my name for the senatorship will be made a campaign issue. One thing I cannot but feel the chances of President Roosevelt did not give the slightest thought to the senatorship until I was asked if I would agree to accept it if I were tendered to me. I replied that my name was viewed with favor by the party throughout the state. I would consider it a high honor to succeed Senator Quay."

Mr. Knox said that he was born in Philadelphia and that he was educated at the University of Pennsylvania. He said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Knox said that he was a member of the Pennsylvania bar and that he had been practicing law for many years. He said that he was a Republican and that he was a supporter of the administration of President Roosevelt.

Uncle Sam—What's this row all about?
Moses Gross—I want to play Moses and be his enemy and win the prize money in a fighting game.

SIU-YEN IS CAPTURED.

Russians Driven from Another Stronghold by Japanese Advance.

THEIR PLANS WELL CONCEALED.

Kuroki's Advance Toward Hai Chenj.

Division to Assist General Oku.

Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg.

June 7.

The Japanese army.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

June 7. The Japanese army.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

On the morning of June 7.

Two mountain batteries.

Wright-Metzler Company.

ONE PRICE. THE DAYLIGHT STORE. THE RIGHT PRICE.

Four Extraordinary Millinery Values.

In every business establishment, either large or small, stocks become broken and while there is left what some merchants would consider a large assortment among the four groups of hats we have reduced. The volume of business our millinery department is doing compel us to consider them broken lots and reduce them and sell them quickly to make room for the new goods which arrive daily.

Ladies' Untrimmed Chiffon Hats.

Black Only.

There are about twenty of these assorted shapes in values up to $1.50. The price they go at.....

98c

Untrimmed Braid Hats.

Blue, Brown and Tan.

These are in an assortment of shapes and any one of them worth $1.25. To close them out.....

69c

A Group of Trimmed Hats at $2.69.

This assortment consists of about 30 hats in a large variety of shapes and all of them beautifully trimmed. This is an unusual opportunity to purchase a pretty hat and you can find among them one to suit you.

Cuban Flats

For Children. Prettily trimmed with flowers and ribbon. Values up to $1.50, at.....

98c

A Special Value in Dressing Sacques.

We have just received a large shipment of these very seasonable garments and through price concessions made us in the purchasing of them, we are in a position to offer very special values. One in particular, made of white Persian lawn, thirty rows of tucks at neck. Cuffs and collar prettily trimmed with embroidery. Pink or blue ribbon ties.....

$1.00

A Cool Soft Hat.

Plenty of men prefer a soft hat to a straw, and to these we wish to say that we have an assortment of styles in summer weight soft hats in black, brown, tan or grey that cannot be equaled in variety or price. We have an especially good number in a very light weight at.....

$1.50

Others at prices ranging from 50c to $3.00

One of These New Crash Skirts

As a Valuable Addition to Your Summer Wardrobe.

We could talk a whole lot about these skirts, in fact there is nothing about them that we can't talk about. Every seam faced with braid, silk belts, self-trimmed with tabs and buttons. They are in walking lengths, in tans and grays. You will seldom if ever find a skirt made in every little detail as perfectly as these at $7.50, and we are able to offer them at.....

$5.50

Our World's Fair Skirt.

If you contemplate a trip to St. Louis, it wouldn't be a bad scheme to have a look at these, anyway. They are made up in blue and black Mohair, a fabric which only requires a shake or two to free it from all dust, and restore to it its natural luster. They are stylishly made and perfect in fit. We show them in two prices.....

one at $3.98, another at $5.00

Shirt Waist Elegance

Combined With Durability, Economy and Comfort.

And you can't ask more than this. They are of White Jap Silk, very prettily trimmed. Some of them with Val. Lace and tucks, some with Lace Madallions and Val. Lace. There couldn't be anything cooler, and then Jap Silk is a wash fabric, which enhances the value of these waists greatly.

$2.50, $2.98, $3.50 up to $7.50.

DISTINCTIVE STYLES

Shirt Waist Suits.

There is a certain distinctiveness in style and perfection in the fit of these WRIGHT-METZLER Shirt Waist Suits which don't seem to be in some others that we see. But, of course, there is a reason for all things, and consequently a reason for this. We do not consider a suit offered us a bargain just because a low price is quoted. We consider perfection in workmanship and fit the paramount requisites, and when we find these, our facilities for handling large quantities and buying on a strictly cash basis, enables us to quote prices which are very evidently appreciated. We are showing a large variety of new styles in blue, gray, tan and champagne colored Chambrays with the new blouse waist, large sleeves, turn-over cuff, prettily trimmed.....

$2.50, $3.98 and $5.00

FROM NEARBY TOWNS.

SCOTSDALE.

Breezy Paragraphs Picked Up in the Mill Town.

Scottdale, June 11.—Tomorrow will be Children's Day in nearly all the churches of town and some very fine programs have been prepared. In the Trinity Reformed Church the pastor will preach a special sermon in the morning and in the evening a program will be carried out by the children. At the morning service in the Presbyterian Church the pastor will preach a special sermon on "Is He a Darling Child?" and then there will be the baptism of infants and babies will be presented to all baptized children of the school who have reached the age of seven during the past year. In the evening the children will carry out a special program. The United Presbyterian Church will also carry out a special program in the evening and the Baptist school will have a special program at both services.

At the Methodist Episcopal Church the pastor, Rev. C. L. B. Cartwright, will preach a special sermon in the morning on "Our Homes; The People and Things in Them." At 2:30 a special program will be carried out by the children, entitled "The Sounds of Summer," which will be rendered by a chorus of 150 voices and supported by a large orchestra. They will also carry out a special program entitled "Knights of the Crusade." Both of the grand marches by the children.

The Upper Tyrone township auditors will meet at the Titman school house on Friday afternoon, June 17, to settle up all the business of the past year.

The Social and Business Club of Everson will hold their third annual outing at Greenlick reservoir on Thursday, June 18.

Rev. A. D. Martin, pastor of the Monroeville Church, will lead the four o'clock Y. M. C. A. meeting tomorrow for men and boys.

Earl Pratt of Youngwood was a visitor here Thursday evening and attended the Colonial Club's informal reception.

Misses Margaret and Pearl Kepner, Mary Stoner of Scottdale and Bessie Freeman of Mt. Pleasant attended the dance given by Prof. Fox in Eagle's Hall, Connellsville, on Thursday night. This was Prof. Fox's last dance and reception for the season.

The informal reception given by the Colonial Club in the new auditorium in Ellsworth Park on Thursday evening proved a very pleasant affair. A large number of visitors were present from Connellsville, Greensburg, Mt. Pleasant and the surrounding towns. This was the opening of the new auditorium, the old one having been burnt down some time ago by fire.

Most of the Scottdale people will go elsewhere to celebrate the Fourth. The remains of Peter O'Neill, who died at the Cottage State Hospital on Thursday evening from injuries received by falling through the Scottsdalesville viaduct last week, were brought to his home in Everson yesterday morning and interred this morning in the St. John's cemetery.

The St. John's parochial school will hold their graduating exercises on Thursday evening next, June 18, beginning at 7:30. A large class of young people graduate. The exercises will consist of essays, recitations, solos, etc.

DAWSON.

Live Notes From the Busy Little Town Down the Yough.

Dawson, June 10.—Alexander Ervine, Jr., special agent of the Lebanon Building & Loan Association, was in our town Thursday and Friday. It is his intention to locate a branch of this strong institution here. It comes highly recommended, branches being at Connellsville and Uniontown. The best business men of the respective towns compose the board.

The Royal Arcanum here has been challenged by the same order at Dunbar for a series of three games of baseball, which challenge will be accepted. It was the intention of the order here to challenge the winner of the three games to be played between Dunbar and Connellsville. R. D. Henry was appointed to look up the players. The game should be played only by those who have been members of the order for three months so they could not load up, as it is understood that Dunbar is taking in members in order to have some expert players. No doubt it will be an interesting game.

Miss Mable Hess of Dorchester, Va., is here visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Crawford.

The dance given at Scottdale on Thursday evening was well attended by the society set of our town. They drove over in cabs and returned at an early morning hour, all reporting a good time.

Miss Edward of Connellsville visited her friend, Miss Katherine McGill, on Thursday.

Mrs. E. C. Higbee, after a week's visit at the home of Mr. Higbee's parents in Lower Tyrone township, returned to her home in Connellsville this morning.

W. J. Beggs, who had a law suit at Uniontown this week over a dog which another party claimed he stole, was found not guilty.

VANDERBILT.

Personal Chat From Dunbar Township's Big Village.

Vanderbilt, June 10.—Ex-Senator A. D. Boyd, one of Uniontown's well known citizens, was in Vanderbilt Thursday afternoon attending to some matters of business.

T. H. Hart, travelling salesman for W. H. Chadlock, the shoe manufacturer of Pittsburg, was calling on the merchants at this place Friday afternoon. His home is in McKeesport.

William R. Kelly and W. J. Reed went to the county seat Friday afternoon and transacted matters of business. The former is a jeweler and the latter a contractor.

M. J. Tull, who resides in New Haven, was in Vanderbilt to call on Friday at noon. Mr. Tull is a contractor and a lively one, and also takes deep interest in politics.

Read the first and foremost paper published in the Yough region, the Daily Courier. Look at the vast amount of reading matter you can get for one cent and everywhere that appears in the columns of this paper is worth reading.

Eugene Eckwood and family of Gates were in Vanderbilt this week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gallagher.

Camphell H. Arson, the well known Democratic leader of this place, was in New Haven Thursday evening attending a meeting of the auditors of Dunbar township.

Jacob Harshman, constable, was attending to legal business in Connellsville Thursday afternoon.

H. E. McLaughlin, justice of the peace, was in Uniontown the first of the week talking politics and looking after some business matters.

Miss Lillian Orbin was in New Haven on last Thursday the guest of her friends.

T. E. Edward Ogilvie of East Liberty was in Connellsville last Thursday evening on professional business and shaking hands with friends.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING.

Evangelist Omer Conducts Successful Services at Perryopolis.

Perryopolis, June 10.—One of the greatest meetings ever held among the Disciples in this section is now in progress at the church here. Evangelist R. A. Omer has delivered some strong and eloquent sermons in pleading for a return to the primitive gospel and the bible as the only rule of faith and practice. At the conclusion of a powerful sermon last night, subject, "What Think Ye of Jesus Who is Called Christ?" six came forward and confessed their belief in Jesus as the son of God. Two came to be identified with the local church. Those who came forward are as follows: Allen Galley, Howard Adams and wife, William Hone and wife, George Wilkes, Miss Lena Galley and her brother Freeman. The baptisms will take place after the services on Saturday evening. Thirty-one have now been added to the congregation and more to follow. The meeting will continue some time yet.

Woman's Exchange.

The Woman's Exchange will hold their next Saturday sale at S. R. Mason's music store, and will continue at same place for the following four Saturdays.

A Bruise Record.

Washington county has 11 cases of violent deaths reported to the coroner since Sunday, one a murder, one a suicide and the rest accidental deaths.

PLANTERS ASK FOR $60.

Florida Along Arkansas River Have Destroyed At Cotton Crops.

W. H. Smith, a planter, says that the people of the Arkansas river valley are asking for $60 per acre for the loss of their cotton crops.

It is estimated that the loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

The loss of cotton crops in the Arkansas river valley is $60 per acre.

ANOTHER PROTEST MADE.

Powers Stay Turks' Hand After Many Armenians Are Killed.

Paris, June 11.—Powers' Minister of Foreign Affairs has received from Constantinople a report that the British, French and Russian ambassadors there have reached a joint agreement to present an energetic representation to the grand vizier to put a stop to the Armenian massacres. It is expected that a joint representation on the subject will be submitted at once.

This action follows the official investigation confirming that a number of bloody combats have occurred that villages have been destroyed and that people have been killed in Armenia.

3,141 Islands in Philippines.

Washington, June 11.—According to a bulletin issued by the census bureau there are 30 volcanic cones in the Philippine archipelago, of which 12 are active. The islands total 3,141.

Club Secretary Kills Himself.

Cleveland, June 11.—William C. Stahle, for 25 years secretary of the Union club of this city, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. Ill health led to the suicide.

Village Badly Damaged.

Escanaba, Mich., June 11.—Fire which started in a boarding house in the village of Nahma, 25 miles east of here, burned 18 buildings before it was extinguished. Loss $70,000.

A New Bakery.

HOME-MADE BREAD, CAKES AND PIES.

Choicest home-made bread, patty shells, cones, and all kinds of cakes and pies. Mother never made better.

GEO. F. PRITCHARD, 237 N. Pittsburg Street

UNION REAL ESTATE CO.

220 Ellis & Trust Bldg., CONNELLVILLE, PENN.

Sells real estate, rents property, collects rent, etc.

Give Us Some of Your Business

E. E. ROSS

205 Peach St., one door above Bank more House, Connellville, Pa.

NEW and SECOND-HAND GOODS Bought and sold on small margin

Watch Cleaning, 50c. Watch Springs, 50c

SHOEMER'S

Cut Flower Store, No. 133 South Pittsburg Street.

Funeral Expenses of all kinds on short notice.

NEW COLUMBIA PARK

New Haven, Pa.

The Coming Games:

C. A. C. vs. W. V. U.
C. A. C. vs. Cumberland A. C.
C. A. C. vs. Piedmont A. C.
C. A. C. vs. Lonaconing, Md.

—WATCH FOR—

Announcement of Games

THE BEST

advertising medium in the Connellsville Coke Region is

THE COURIER

(Daily and Weekly)

When you advertise in The Courier you get results. Try this paper with your advertising.

IT WILL PAY YOU

Commercial Printing of all kinds Done Promptly at this Office.

THE DAILY COURIER

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice, Connellville, Pa.

THE COURIER COMPANY,
Publishers.

H. P. SNYDER,
President and Managing Editor.
J. H. S. STIMMELL,
Secretary and Treasurer.

Office, The Courier Building, 127½ Main Street, Connellville, Pa.

SUBSCRIPTION.
DAILY, $3.00 per year; 10 per copy.
WEEKLY, $1.00 per year; 10 per copy.

ADVERTISING.
The Daily and Weekly Courier in combination make the best newspaper advertising in the Connellville area. We make this statement on the authority of advertisers who speak from experience. We are willing to be judged by results. Schedule of advertising rates furnished on application. Address all communications to

THE COURIER COMPANY,
127½ Main Street, Connellville, Pa.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Supreme Court Justice.
John P. Eldin of Indiana.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For Congress,
Allen F. Cooper of Fayette.
For Sheriff,
Mart. A. Klefer, Uniontown Borough.
For District Attorney,
Thomas H. Hudson, Uniontown Bor.
For Assembly,
Charles F. Hood, Connellville Twp.
Andrew A. Thompson, Uniontown Bor.
William L. Wood, Jefferson Twp.
For Coroner,
Dr. Arthur S. Hagan, Fairchance Bor.
For Poor House Director,
James J. Barnhart, Dunbar Twp.
For County Surveyor,
James B. Hogg, Connellville Bor.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION.

State of Pennsylvania, County of Fayette, ss:

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public within and for said county and State, duly commissioned and sworn, John B. Cooley, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say:

That he is employed as foreman of the press room of

THE DAILY COURIER,
Published in Connellville, Pa., and that the number of papers printed and circulated during the week ending June 4, 1904, was as follows:

May 31.....2,950
June 1.....3,025
June 2.....3,000
June 3.....3,000
June 4.....3,000
And further deponent saith not.

JOHN B. COOLEY,
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 6th day of June, 1904.

HUSTEAD A. CROW,
Notary Public.

THE MAN FOR SENATOR.

It seems that the man has been found for Senator and that he is such a man as The Courier described a few days ago, "one who lives above the fog in public duty and in private thinking."

The State of Pennsylvania is to me congratulated upon the selection of Philander C. Knox. He is not tall in stature, but he towers above his fellows in intellect. He is thoroughly familiar with the conditions and the needs of Pennsylvania, and he will ably represent them.

The mention of the name of Henry Clay Frick for the Senatorship was no doubt very flattering to that gentleman, but he has never been in politics as a candidate for office. It is reasonably safe to say, in view of this last experience, that he never will be; and who shall say that he is not wise?

A WORD FOR NICHOLAS.

The usual attempt upon the Czar's life has been made, fortunately without success. The Czar is at war with Japan, yet nobody will accuse the Japanese of this outrage.

It seems queer that the humane and benignant rulers of their countries should be the subject of attack only at home. We use the adjectives advisedly. Nicholas is a humane and benignant ruler. He has given every evidence of this fact. He was the author of the Tribunal of The Hague. He is now suffering in the Orient, not for his own sins of aggression and oppression, but for the sins of those who went before him.

He was bequeathed a condition, and ere his humane and honorable inclinations could amend it, cruel war was thrust upon him, involving in a manner his very seat upon the throne of Russia.

Nicholas is not to be too severely condemned, and especially is it in bad taste on the part of the people of the United States to openly side with the Japanese in the present conflict, no matter what their popular sympathies may be. Russia has ever been a warm and consistent friend of the United States, and at times when this country sorely needed friends.

The Governor of Colorado has determined to stamp out the dynamiters, and public sentiment will be with him as he does it, no matter what may be said about martial law and the rights of the union miners. Dynamiters do not have many rights in this country.

It is Senator Knox already.

The Prohibition State platform throws some sop to the Democrats by condemning bossism in the Republican party. Is this a joke on Colonel Guffey?

Connellsville has some acrobatic cows that ought to bring a good price for the circus business. They have demonstrated their ability to climb the roof of the barn and we fully expect to see them shilling up the telegraph poles next week. It's all a matter of habit.

Business looks a trifle better and we are now in hopes that everything will not go wholly to the bad in the strenuous effort to elect another Chief Magistrate of the Nation.

JOHNSTOWN'S REUNION.

Old Residents of the Food City Will Have An Ingathering.

Embracing citizens of Johnstown, the famous "Food City," have perfected arrangements for a grand homecoming of all former residents of the big steel town, including men and women. The Johnstown Old Boys' Reunion and Summer Carnival Association was organized some time ago when Percy Allen Rose, one of the most prominent young men in the city, was elected president; Harvey G. Barclay, secretary; Edward H. Bailey, one of the editors of The Daily Democrat, treasurer. A number of other business and professional men of Johnstown compose the directors.

The purpose of the association is to hold a reunion of all former Johnstown residents in that city the week of July 18 to 23. To the end that the homecoming old boys and girls may have amusement, a contract has been made with the Penn. Bros. Great London Carnival Company, the Bureau of them all, to give a street fair and carnival from Monday, July 18, until Saturday, July 23. There are living in Braddock, McKeesport, Pittsburg, Allegheny, Homestead and Wilmerding, Pa., and Cleveland and Lorain, O., several thousand former residents of Johnstown and all of these will be invited to attend the reunion.

HAVE YOU A $100 BILL?

Look At It Now; It May Be Counterfeit.

Chief Wilkie of the United States Secret Service, announces the discovery of a new counterfeit $100 gold certificate. The counterfeit is of department series, act of July 12, 1892; check letter B; plate number 5; J. W. Lyons, register; Ellis H. Roberts, treasurer; portrait of Denton.

This counterfeit is a well-executed lithograph, printed on bond paper of good quality, bearing blue ink marks in imitation of the silk fibre of the genuine paper. The most noticeable defect is the portrait of Denton, where the absence of light and shade effects give it a flat, unnatural appearance.

HANNAH ELIAS DISCHARGED.

Millionaire Platt Proved Poor Witness in His Own Suit.

New York, June 11.—Mrs. Hannah Elias was discharged on motion of Assistant District Attorney Rand, acting for District Attorney Jerome, at the conclusion of the testimony of Charles R. Platt, the great millionaire, who caused her arrest for extortion.

Mr. Platt proved a disappointing witness. To questions bearing directly on the charges on which the woman's arrest had been made he answered repeatedly: "I don't know."

His helplessness and his apparent unreliable memory surprised those who attended his examination. He did not remember whether he had given Mrs. Elias large sums of money during the past ten years, as charged, and did not remember signing certain of the papers in connection with his charges against her. The record was a trying one for the aged man and his replies were scarcely audible toward the last. As soon as he had left the witness chair Assistant District Attorney Rand said:

"Your honor, I think the parties to this miserable scandal ought to be allowed to stew in their own grease. There is no evidence before us that will possibly serve to hold this woman on a charge of extortion. I recommend that she be discharged."

CZAR'S LIFE ATTEMPTED.

Two Infernal Machines Found in Palace at Tsarskoye Selo.

London, June 11.—The Daily Mail reports: "Two infernal machines were found on the night of June 7, concealed in tobacco boxes, in the Tsarskoye Selo palace, where the Russian emperor is residing. One of the machines was in the dining room and the other in the audience chamber. The mechanism in each was working when discovered. The strictest secrecy is observed and this statement, although true in every detail, is sure to be categorically denied."

TRAIN ROBBERS ESCAPE POSSE OF PURSUERS.

New Castle, Col., June 11.—The two survivors of the band of train robbers who dynamited an express car on the Denver and Rio Grande railway near Parachute have escaped from a ridge in the fold of a canyon where they had apparently been surrounded by pursuers. Bloodhounds are being used to trail the robbers.

When you have a present to make a man—buy it here. When you give a man a present it is expected that you will give something of good quality.

You will have no need to worry on that score if what you give is

"FROM McClaren's,"
"Everything in Men's Wear,"
Little @ Trust Building.

There's Satisfaction

In wearing any of our Men's Four Dollar Shoes. They are not only made in the newest and best styles, to fit and look well, but the comfort and the service found in every pair pleases the customer, and justifies us in claiming them to be the very best sold at $4.00. You choose from all the new styles and from all fine leathers,

Black or Tan.

Norris & Hooper,
104 W. Main St.

Here is What You Need 106 For the Hot Weather.

WHITE SILK SHIRT WAISTS

For Ladies, washable, and beauties, at $2.50, $2.75 and $3.75.

White Lawn Waists, 98c, $1.50 and $2.50	Ladies' Wash Shirts, White Pique, White Linen, White Duck, Blue and black Duck.
Ladies' Tourist Automobile Long Coats, made of Mohair, the popular pongee and other shades, elegant and stylish, $9.75 to $15.	Wash Suits, Jacket and Skirt, smart styles, all Linen in white or tan.

LACE CURTAINS.

All odd pairs at.....1/4 off
Regular Line.....48c to $6.50

CURTAIN STRETCHERS.

A good strong Stretcher, stationary pins at.....69c.
Not too cheap to be good, but too good for the money.
Our $2 Stretcher has adjustable pins and will not tear curtains.

BED SPREADS.

$3.50 Marseilles Spread at.....$2.98 | $1.75 Fringed Spread at.....$1.50
$1.50 Fringed Spread at.....$1.00

New Idea Patterns.....10 cents

Leche, Buckwalter & Co.,
One-Price STORE.

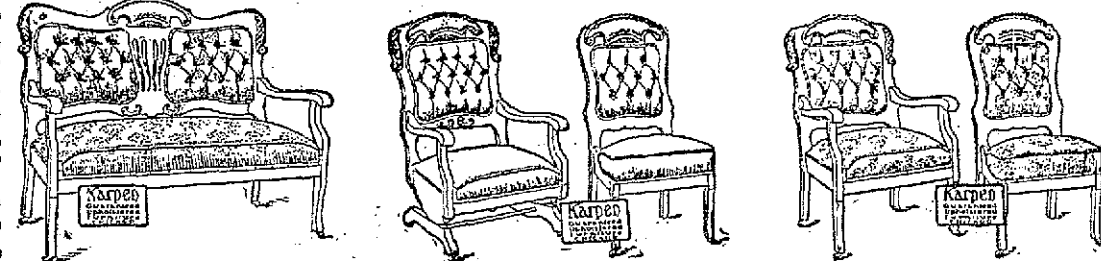

SUNDAY EXCURSIONS via B. & O. R. R.
To Cumberland June 12, fare $1.50.

JUNE BRIDES, TAKE NOTICE!

The Aaron Co.

—ARE LOOKING FOR YOU.

Yes, and with a view to benefiting you. Of course, now that you are about to get married you must be thinking of going to housekeeping. This is where The Aaron Co. come in. And if you read the following items you will readily understand why this store grows so fast. The Aaron Co. wants every person in need of house-furnishings to enjoy the advantages of their splendid credit system. You can have the goods and use them while paying for them. Pay what you can at the time of purchase—have the rest charged.

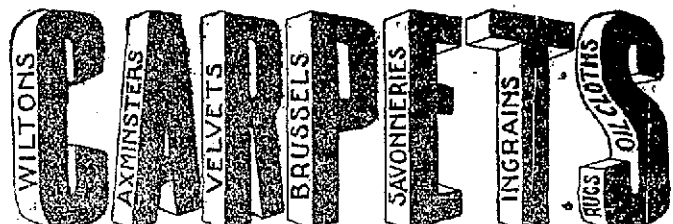

This Very Handsome Parlor Suit

Was made to sell at $40, but we have reduced the price to $24 to make things interesting in this department this week, and to convince more people that there is no place like The Aaron Co.'s for furniture, made, and the upholstery is in highly pleasing patterns of the most up-to-date velour. The frames are mahogany finished and altogether attractive. But please bear in mind that $24 is the price for this week only.

$24

Brussels Carpet—More designs than ever before; patterns are suitable for rooms and stairs. A yard.....65c
Brussels Carpet—A high grade carpet whose reputation is for good service and a soft velvety appearance. You'll like the designs and color effects. With or without border.....90c
Ingrain Carpet—These heavy Ingrain carpets give splendid service because they are thoroughly well made. Many pretty designs and bright colorings.....40c
Alexminster Carpet—A dozen patterns in Alexminster carpet. It is a high pile carpet with heavy body; always has a bright, fresh appearance. Per yard.....$1.25
Velvet Carpet—One of these lasts a lifetime. It always pleases. Exquisite coloring, very rich. Per yard.....$1.00
Wilton Velvet Carpet—This carpet is one of the richest ever made, yet wears well—not for that. Many patterns, all tasteful, pleasing Oriental colorings, with or without border. Per yard.....$1.25

Made, Laid and Lined Free.

Carpet Size Rugs:—

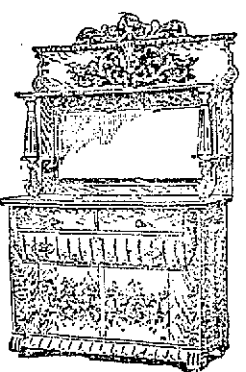

9x12 Fine Brussels Rugs,
Axminster Rugs,
Rich Wilton Rugs.

This Elegant Bedroom Suit.

This bedroom suit certainly is a beauty; $40 is the price usually asked for this suit, but The Aaron Co.'s price is $29 and you can buy it on easy terms if you wish

$29

Sideboard

Like cut, made of solid golden oak, hand polished and beautifully carved; built in best manner, worth $23, for $16.50

Chiffonier

Like cut, five large deep-draw drawers, very rich golden finish and constructed in the very best possible manner. A special for this week only

$3.48

Get New Lace Curtains This Week.

Special values in all kinds—Nottingham, Irish point and American Arabian Lace. Special prices.

75c to $15.00 per pair.

For Love of Country

By CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY.

Author of "The Grip of Honor," "The Southerners," "Sir Henry Morgan, Buccaneer," "A Doctor of Philosophy," Etc.

Copyright, 1898, by CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

CHAPTER XXV.

THE route for the first mile and a half lay up a steep hill, where the men were much exposed and suffered terribly. After that for three miles or so wound in and out between the hills and through forests of ash and black oak, which afforded some little shelter. The storm raged with unabated fury and the progress of the little army was very slow. The men were in good spirits, however, and they cheerfully toiled on over the roads covered with deep drifts, bearing as best they might the driving tempest. It was 6 in the morning when they reached the little village of Birmingham, where the two columns divided. General Greene's column, accompanied by Washington, taking the longer or inland road, called the Pennington road, which entered the town from the northeast, while Sullivan's column followed the lower road, which entered the town from the west by way of a bridge over the Assumpink creek. As Greene had a long detour to make, Sullivan had orders to wait where the crossroad from Howland's Ferry intersected his line of march until the first column had time to effect the longer circuit, so that the two attacks might be delivered together. General Washington himself rode in front of the first column. It was still frightfully cold.

About daybreak the general spied an officer on horseback toiling through the snowdrifts toward him. As the horseman drew nearer he recognized young Martin.

"What is it now, sir?"

"General Sullivan says that the storm has rendered many of his men

He recognized young Martin.

kets useless by wetting the priming and powder. He wishes to know what is to be done.

"Return instantly and tell him he must use the bayonet. When he hears the firing he is to advance and charge immediately. The town must be taken, and I intend to take it."

"Very good, sir," said the young man, saluting.

"Can you get through the snow in time?"

"Yes, sir," he replied promptly. "I can get through anything if your excellency will give the order."

The general smiled approvingly. It was evident that young Martin's first lesson had been a good one. His emphasis, he was glad to see, had not been misplaced.

When Martin rejoined Sullivan's column, which had been halted at the crossroads, the men who had witnessed his departure were eagerly waiting his return. As he repeated the general's reply they began slipping the bayonets over the muzzles of their guns without orders. So eager were they to advance that Sullivan had difficulty in restraining them until the signal was given. Such were their temper and spirit that in the excitement of the moment they rocked little of the freezing cold and the hardships of their terrible march. The retreating army was at last on the offensive. They were about to attack now, and an attack was so dangerous as that delivered by men from whom the compelling necessity of retreat had been suddenly removed.

It was about 8 o'clock in the morning when they came in sight of the town. The village of Trenton then contained about 100 houses, mostly frame, scattered along both sides of two long streets and chiefly located on the west bank of the Assumpink, which here bent sharply to the north before it flowed into the Delaware. The Assumpink was fordable in places at low water, but it was spanned by a substantial stone bridge, which gave on the road followed by Sullivan, at the west end of the village. Washington came down from the north and entered the village from the other side. About half a mile from the edge of the town the column led by him came abreast of an old man chopping wood in a farmyard by the roadside.

"Which is the way to the Hessians' picket?" said the general.

"I don't know," replied the man submissively.

"You may tell," said Captain Forest, riding near the general at the head of his battery, "for this is General Washington."

The man's expression altered at once. "God bless and prosper you!" he cried eagerly, raising his hands to heaven. "There! The picket is in that house yonder, and the sentry stands near that tree."

The intense cold and heavy snow had driven the twenty-five men who composed the advance picket to shelter, and they were huddled together in one of the rude huts which served as a guardhouse. The snow had fallen so fast that the sentry, who had been posted on the roof of the house by chance, and gave the alarm in great surprise. The picket rushed out, and the men lined up in the road in front of the column, the thick snow preventing them from forming a correct idea of the approaching force. The advance guard of the Continentals, led by Captain William A. Washington and Lieutenant James Monroe, instantly swept down upon them. After a scattered volley, which hurt no one, they decided precipitately back toward the village, giving the alarm and rallying on the main guard, posted nearer the center of the town, which had been specially drawn up to the number of seventy-five men. Meanwhile Sullivan's men, with Stark at the head, had routed the pickets on the other road in the same gallant style. This picket was composed of about fifty Hessians, dressed in the uniform of the Continental army, under command of Lieutenant Crutchen of the chasseur. They all fled so precipitately that they did not stop to alarm the brigade which they had been stationed to protect, but rapidly galloped down the road and, crossing the bridge over the Assumpink, made good their escape toward Bordentown. Grave suspicions of cowardice attached thereto to their commanding officer. Had Ewing performed his part in the plan the bridge would have been held and the result would have been captured with the rest. Stark's men, followed by the rest of Sullivan's division, were now pushed on rapidly for the town and the cheers of the New England men were distinctly heard by Washington and his men on the main road. The main guard on the upper road, almost as completely surprised as the other by the dashing onslaught of the Americans, made another futile attempt at resistance to Greene's column, but they were felled back in great disorder upon their main body.

It was broad daylight now, and the violence of the storm had somewhat abated. In the town, where the firing had been heard, the drums of the three regiments were rapidly beating the assembly. Colonel Rahl was in fact sleeping off the effects of his previous night's indulgence when he heard the commotion, jumping from the bed and running rapidly to the window. Still undressed, he thrust out his head and asked the acting sergeant adjutant Rahl, who was hurriedly putting on his coat, what was the matter. There was a total misapprehension on all sides even at this hour as to the serious nature of the attack, so the confusion colored, satisfied with Rahl's surprise that it was a raid, ordered him to take the main guard and go to the assistance of the main guard in the supposition that it was only a skirmishing party, and never dreaming of a general attack. Nevertheless he then dressed rapidly and, running down to the street, mounted his horse, which had been brought around the three regiments which comprised his brigade and command were already forming. They were the regiment Rahl, the regiment Von Losburg and the regiment Von Knyphausen. At this moment the advance party and the main guard came running through the streets in great confusion, crying that the whole rebel army was down upon them. The regiment Rahl and the regiment Von Losburg at once began retreating to an apple orchard back of the town, firing ineffectively. In their retreat, as they ran, from behind the houses, at the head of the column which had now appeared in the street, while the regiment Von Knyphausen, under the command of Major Von Dechow, the second in command of the brigade, separated from the rest of the column, made for the bridge over the Assumpink.

King and Queen streets run together at the east end of the town. There Washington stationed himself, on the left of Forest's battery, which was immediately unlimbered and opened up a hot fire. The general's position was much exposed, and after his horse had been wounded his officers repeatedly requested him to fall back to a safer point, which he peremptorily refused to do. The joy of battle sparkled in his eyes. He had instinctively chosen that position on the field from whence he could best see and direct the conflict, and nothing but a successful charge of the enemy could have moved him to retire.

A few of the cooler headed men among the Hessians had rallied some of the Lassburg regiment, and two guns had been run out into the street and pointed up toward the place where Washington stood to form a battery which might, could it have been served, have held the American army in check until such time as the startled Germans could recover their wits and make a stand. General Washington pointed them out to the officer of the advance guard, which had already done such good service, with a wave of his sword. The little handful of men, led by Captain Washington and Lieutenant Monroe, charged down upon the guns, which the party had not had time to load. A scattering volley received them. Captain Washington and Monroe and one of the men were wounded. Another fell dead. The men hesitated. Rahl sprang to the head of the column in obedience to the general's nod, and they rallied, advanced on the run and the guns were immediately captured.

Meanwhile the fire of Stark's rideouts could be heard at the other end of the town. St. Clair's brigade held the bridge. The regiment Von Knyphausen lost a few precious moments endeavoring to extinguish its guns, which had become mixed in the moccas near the bridge, and then charged upon St. Clair. But it was too late. Von Dechow was seriously wounded, and when the regiment saw itself taken in the flank by Sargent's brigade it retired in disorder, though some few men escaped by the fells.

At this juncture Rahl reformed his scattered troops in the apple orchard. He seems to have had an idea of retreating toward Princeton at first, with the two regiments still under his command. At any rate he also lost precious moments by hesitation. It was even then too late to effect a successful retreat for Washington, foreseeing the possibility, had promptly sent Rahl's Pennsylvania rideouts along the Pennington road back of the town to check any move in that direction. As fast as the other brigades of Greene's column came up they were sent down through the streets of the town, until Sullivan, in the lead, joined Sullivan's men. Rahl's brigade was practically surrounded, though he did not know it. The town was full of Hessians gathered by the troops, the Hessians having been looting the country for weeks and doing but little damage without a struggle. The idea of flying from a band of ragged fellows whom he had counted on as a tolerable force had been, he now felt, more than culpable in neglecting many warnings of attack and had lamentably failed in his duty as a soldier in retreating from taking the commonest precautions against surprise. He had refused to heed the urgent representations of Von Dechow and other of his high officers. Now his longer was at stake so he rashly made up his mind to charge.

"We will retake the town. All who are my comrades, forward!" he cried intently.

The men, with new bayonets and renewed bravado, and he led them rapidly forward, sword in hand. The Americans fired a volley. Forest's battery, which remained there, poured in a deadly fire. Rahl in the advance, upon his horse, received a fatal wound and fell to the ground. The town sentry, charging madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts, who in cold blood with another volley. Many of them fell. A body of Virginia troops, led by Tabbot, now and the rest of the Philadelphia city guard, who were sent to the bridge, charged madly, charged his sword with bayonets. The Hessians stopped, hesitated, wavered. Their chief was gone. The battle was lost. They broke and fled. The command and appeals of the officers, they turned up only to the right and ran off into the face of Rahl's rideouts

NAPOLEON, As Seen by His Associates

THE SMALLNESS OF THE MAN

(Copyright, 1904, by G. L. Kilmer.)

XIV.
NUMEROUS instances of Napoleon's smallness and even pettiness of mind are found in the reminiscences of the men and women who shared his daily life. He was a "bad loser" in any enterprise whatsoever, and if luck was against him he invariably resorted to sulks or trickery. Says the Duchesse d'Angoulême: "Even at chess he always managed to regain possession of his two bishops. He did not like any one to remark upon it seriously and was always the first to laugh at it himself, but he was clearly annoyed if too much stress were laid upon it, and, after all, as he never played for money, there was more reason to laugh than to be annoyed at it."
He was haunted by men suspicious. His minister of police, Fouché, writing of his system of surveillance, declares: "This odious and secret militia was inherent in a system replete and maintained by the most suspicious and mistrustful man that perhaps ever existed."
And also:
"The tragic death of Paul I. of Russia inspired Bonaparte with melancholy ideas and made his disposition still more suspicious and mistrustful. He dreamed of nothing but conspiracies in the army and caused several general officers to be arrested, among others Humbert, whom I had some difficulty in saving from his inflexible severity."
He was morbidly sensitive on the the arrangements, sometimes demanding another play and other actors on the morning of the day the piece was to be acted. "I wish it to be so. It is your business to find the means," he would say to the grand chamberlain, M. de Remusat, who was the director of court theatricals. Then messengers would be dispatched posthaste for the requisite "property" and persons, the whole day passing in excitement and suspense for the principals involved. Finally, after infinite trouble and worry on all sides, the play would be produced, and Napoleon, sitting preoccupied in his box, would fall into a reverie or go to sleep. Said Talleyrand to M. de Remusat, "You're an impossible task—amusing the Unamiable."

His personality was more than masterful; it was overbearing to the point of petty persecution, and that, too, on occasions when a ruler on trial should appear at his best.
"The absence of the emperor was always a relief," says Mme. de Remusat. "If people did not speak more freely they seemed better able to breathe, and this sense of alleviation was especially to be observed in persons connected with his government."
"When he had, to use his own expression, roused up everybody all around, he felt satisfied with the terror he had excited and, appearing to forget what had passed, resumed his customary way of life."
"If anybody had been conscious of real superiority of any kind he must

NAPOLÉON IN 1799.
(After a painting by Guérin.)

point of social and political conspiracies which kept up a fire in the rear while he was abroad winning victories. Says Fouché:

"He owned to me that in battle, in the greatest dangers and even in the midst of deserts he had always to view the good opinion of Paris, and especially of the Faubourg St. Germain. He was Alexander the Great constantly directing his thoughts toward Athens."
He interfered in the most arbitrary manner with the costumes of his empress and the court ladies. "You are aware that I am very knowing in matters of dress," he once wrote to the French ambassador to Russia, M. de Talleyrand, "an attendant of Josephine, says:
"It was a most extraordinary thing for us to see the man whose head was filled with such vast affairs enter into the most minute details of the female toilet, and of what dresses, what robes and what jewels the empress should wear on such and such an occasion. One day he dined her dress with him because he did not like it and wanted her to put on another. When ever he looked into her wardrobe he was sure to throw everything topsy-turvy."

On the occasion of his marriage with Maria Louise he went out of his way to rebuke a lady of the court, saying to her rudely: "This is the same gown you wore the day before yesterday! What's the meaning of this, madame? This is not right, madame."
"He was unable to endure the domination even of his own institutions," says Mme. de Remusat, who lived so long as the companion of Josephine that she became a part of the household and court.

"All about him suffered from ennui. He did so himself and frequently complained of the fact, resorting to others the dull and constrained silence which was in reality imposed by him. I have heard him say: 'It is a singular thing. I have brought together a lot of people to amuse themselves. I have arranged every sort of pleasure for them, and here they are with long faces, looking tired.'"

"That," replied Talleyrand, "is because pleasure cannot be summoned by the heat of the drum, and here, just as when you are with the army, you always seem to say to us all, 'Come, ladies and gentlemen, forward, march!'"

When the court was at Fontainebleau, thirty-seven miles from Paris, Napoleon insisted upon having two plays a week in the palace theater. Only the best actors of the Comédie Française at Paris performed in these plays, and the emperor personally supervised the en-needs have endeavored to hide it, and it is probable that, warned by a sense of danger, everybody affected dullness or vacuity when those qualities were not real.

"I occasionally heard him speak of Mme. de Staël. The hatred he bore her was unquestionably founded in some degree upon that jealousy with which he was inspired by any superiority which he could not control, and his words were often characterized by a bitterness which elevated her in spite of himself and lowered him in the estimation of those who listened to him."
Cheap ridicule made Napoleon vain, and cheap flattery was not wasted on him. He rebuked his minister of police for not suppressing the witty sayings and contemptuous remarks current in Paris and aimed at him, which circulated in camp through the mail.

"He loved praise from no matter what lips, and more than once he was duped by it," says Mme. de Remusat. "There were men who had influence over him because their compliments were inexhaustible. Unfailing admiration, no matter how foolishly expressed, never failed to please him."
He delighted in making things wait his pleasure in the antechamber and at St. Helena kept up a petty court, with the people stilly posing before him as they should in the presence of a monarch on the throne.

GEORGE L. KILMER.

Rochefort Cheese.
Rochefort, that most individual member of the cheese family, gains its distinction and its flavor by ripening six months in a cave in the mountains near the little village of Rochefort, in southern France. Part of process which it undergoes is the picking full of little holes, into which the air of the cave penetrates. This air remains of the same temperature the year round. Only sheep's milk is used for making Rochefort.

Unprotected.
The stage manager catches one of the actors smoking behind the scenes. "Here! he says, 'Don't smoke on the stage!'"
"What's the odds? The scenery is fireproof!"
"But you're not!"
As the actor discovered when he got his two weeks' notice.—Judge.

Method in His Madness.
Mrs. Wick—What is the use of standing there and calling the store names? That won't make the fire burn any better. Mr. Wick—I thought that maybe if I could insult the blamed thing it would get hot about it.

DON'T WANT BOROUGH

(Continued from First Page.)

with a sancer, making an ugly gash. Dr. John D. Sturgeon corroborated this and said he sewed the wound up. Twist said he was obliged to withdraw from home. He was convicted. Judgment for Plaintiff.

In the case of Samuel Stern, guardian of Earl D. Elda, Blma G. Allee M. Mildred R. and Emma M. Snider against George W. Crow of Uniontown, the court directed that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for the premises described and all rights of defendant therein shall absolutely terminate. This is to be released, however, on payment by defendant to plaintiff within ten days, the sum of $21,000 with interest from January 28, 1903, plaintiff to file among the papers his deed to Crow for the property to be delivered to Crow on payment of the purchase money and interest. On failure to pay the deed is to be rendered to plaintiff. This action was taken because Crow had not filed his statement or abstract of title in which he relies for a defense to the action. The property involved is the John Snider tract of coal land along the National pike in Menallen township.

Partners Fall Out.
Domestic Camino has filed a defense to a suit brought against him by Louis Caputo some time ago to collect $250. Defendant admits that he entered into partnership with Camino on July 15, 1903, to run a fruit store at Bella Vornon and also one at Marchand. He says the plaintiff, who had charge of the Marchand store, left after some time, taking with him $225 of the firm's money. They each divided the work and were to share the net profits equally. Camino denies owing Caputo $250 or any other amount.

Pleading Guilty.
John McGuire of North Union township entered a plea of guilty to assault and battery and aggravated assault and battery preferred by Elizabeth McGuire. The latter claimed that on May 29 the latter beat, kicked, choked and abused her, thereby causing her considerable inconvenience, pain and suffering.

Letters of Administration.
In the estate of Martha L. White, late of Dunbar township, letters of administration have been granted to Montrose W. Morland. Bond $2,021, with M. J. Tulley and John H. Morland as sureties. In the estate of S. S. Nelson, late of Dunbar township, letters have been granted to Charles F. Kefover. Bond $1,000, with C. J. McCormick and J. C. Work as sureties. Springer Divorce.

In the divorce case of Charles W. Springer against Ida Springer of Connellsville, the latter has asked the court for an allowance of $100 from her husband to defray her expenses during the time the application for a divorce is pending.

Grand Jury Through.
The grand jury completed its labors last night and were discharged. They returned 23 true bills, impanelled and two were withdrawn. Three bridge vias were passed on and 171 witnesses examined.

Today the trial of Constable J. W. Mitchell is on. He is being prosecuted by P. J. Flanagan, the case being an outcome of the Kallenbach trial.

THE Bass Season

opens next Wednesday, June 15. Are you prepared for it? If not just come down to our store where you can get a complete outfit from our new line of fishing tackle.

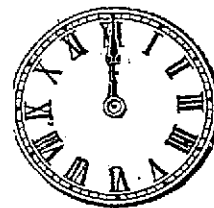

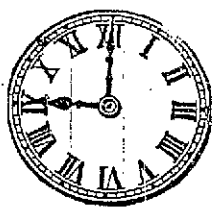

We have rods, reels, lines, flies, bait boxes, baskets and everything you need for trout and bass fishing.

Rods 5c up to $5, including the Bristol steel rod. Lines 1c up to $1.50.

Connellsville Machine & Car Co.'s Hardware Store.
GRANT MYERS, Mgr.
Oppo. B. & O. Depot, Connellsville.

Sale Extraordinary!

FROM 9 TO 12 EACH DAY,
FOR MUCH LESS THAN HALF OF REGULAR PRICES.

We will make this Special Each Day Sale, from 9 to 12, the best of a series of splendid successes. We will make it an occasion that shall surpass any trade festival that Connellsville has ever known, reducing the prices of seasonable merchandise to a point never reached before.

Wednesday, June 15th

We will place on sale from 9 to 12 a. m. only, Ladies' Lisle Thread and Lace Hose that sells at 15c, for..... 10c

Thursday, June 16th

We will place on sale from 9 to 12 a. m. only, 12 cent ribbed Under Vests, with or without sleeves for..... 6c

Friday, June 17th

We will place on sale from 9 to 12 a. m. only, a good assortment Men's & Youth's Suits, all sizes that sell at $12 and $14. $7.90

Saturday, June 18th

We will place on sale from 9 to 12 a. m. only, a large assortment of broadcloths in the newest shades of this season, that sell at $1 and $1.25 for..... 62c

Monday, June 21st

We will place on sale from 9 to 12 a. m. only, 182 Men's 50c and 75c Negligee Shirts for..... 34c
Also a lot of $1 Negligee Shirts for..... 58c

Tuesday, June 22d

We will place on sale from 9 to 12 a. m. only, all Gingham and white $1 Petticoats for..... 68c

Monday, June 13th

We will place on sale from 9 to 12 a. m. only, 250 pair of Men's $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 Pants, in Worsted, Cheviots, Tweeds, Flannels and Cassimeres, for $1.58

Tuesday, June 14th

We will place on sale from 9 to 12 a. m. only, all matings that sold for 25c and 30c, for.... 16c

THE BIG STORE. MACE & CO. Connellsville, Pa.

NEW SUGGESTIONS

—and—modern recommendations for our homes in the demand today.

E. W. CAMPBELL,
300 ARCHITECT,
407-408 First Nat'l Bank.

is "always busy" furnishing these ideas.

DON'T
build or make alterations without complete plans. Others find it says well so will you.

Boston Candy Kitchen.

Buy your Candies where you can get it fresh. Ice cream soda and French ice cream. Choice fruit in season.

Boston Candy Kitchen.
109 E. Main street, Connellsville.

Hotel Wyman.

Under new management Hot and cold baths on each floor. Rooms on suite with private baths. Rates $2.00 to $5.00 per day.

Q. MARIETTA,
Proprietor.

H. S. SPEAR INSURANCE and REAL ESTATE.

RENT COLLECTIONS.

Room No. 1 Union Building, corner Main and Pittsburg streets, CONNELLVILLE, PA.

Read
The Daily Courier.

New Stationery Store.

All the Daily, Weekly and Monthly Papers and Magazines. Up-to-date Writing Paper and Office Supplies.

All the Latest Books.

Fine Soda Water and Box Candies.

RALPH E. PORTER & BRO
No. 113 West Main Street.

MORRIS & CO. UNDERTAKERS.

242 North Pittsburg Street, Bell Phone 32. Opp. Opera House. Tri-State, 147.

CHAS. C. MITCHELL,
Funeral Director

and Embalmer.

Night calls answered at the Office.

AWNINGS

For Awnings or

UPHOLSTERING,

Call on

E. C. PIERCE,
New Haven, - Penn'a.
Phone 381-4. Tri-State, 539.

W. O. CROPP'S Meat Market.

All kinds of fresh and salt meats at bottom prices.

All telephone orders delivered promptly.

Bell 597. Tri-State 524.

No. 105 West Peach Street.

WEAR HORNER'S CLOTHING

DON'T BLOW Your Money!

On Cheap Electrical Work.

You'll find that the concern that knows just how to do, and does do electric wiring properly and skillfully, is the cheapest in the end. We make a specialty of remodeling defective wiring, and furnish certificate from the Board of Underwriters free of charge. We Make No Charge For Estimates, and if you do up us a card we would be pleased to have our representative call and give you figures on any work in this line.

F. T. EVANS, Electrical Contractor and Engineer, CONNELLVILLE, PA.

FREE TRIP to St. Louis Fair.

With every purchase made at the PRIDE OF THE WEST RESTAURANT a ticket will be given which entitles the holder to one vote on a free trip to the World's Fair. The ballots will be counted on September 15th, and the one holding the highest number of ballots will be given a free trip, including Pullman car berth.

T. W. BAXTER,
"Pride of the West,"
TITLE AND TRUST BLD'G.

WHITE MOUNTAIN Ice Cream Co.

SOUTH SIDE,
Tri-State 550.

Don't Throw Away Your Old Carpets
Ship them to us and have them woven into handsome and serviceable Rugs by our NEW RE-WEAVING PROCESS.
We transform threadbare, useless carpets into thick, velvety, rich rugs of any length—and any width up to 12 feet.
WRITE TO-DAY FOR PRICE LIST AND INSTRUCTIONS.
ALLEN RUG WEAVING & CARPET CLEANING CO., 977-5931
Center Ave., E.E., PITTSBURG, PA.

THE VERY BEST

Ice Cream

is none too good. Ours is the kind that suits everybody. If it didn't you would not find so many people coming here for their Ice Cream. It suits them because it is made to suit. The choicest of everything goes into it. It is made right in every particular.

—TRY IT!—

F. C. Rose,
409 N. Pittsburg Street, Connellsville. Both Phones.